DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 5/30/2007 has been entered.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 5, 7, 14, 22 and 26 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The amendment filed on 5/30/2007 overcomes the 35 USC 103 rejections of claims 5, 7, 14, 22 and 26.

The Examiner finds Applicant's arguments, see Remarks, filed 5/30/2007, with respect to claims 5, 7, 14, 22 and 26, especially regarding the features of "the query optimizer rewriting the query using the frequent values list in a manner that allows probing the sub-optimal index according to the rewritten query" and "optimizing the query based on the estimated number of rows in the database table that satisfy the query," persuasive. Lee, Balmin, Jakobsson and Lohman fails to teach the combination of claimed elements including: ""the query optimizer rewriting the query using the frequent values list in a manner that allows probing the sub-optimal index according to the rewritten query" and "the query optimizer optimizing the query based on the estimated number of rows in the database table that satisfy the query," wherein "sub-optimal index including at least one key referenced in the query and additionally including at least one additional key that prevents traversal of the sub-optimal index to determine the number of rows that query will return." The combination of prior arts neither renders obvious nor anticipates the combination of claimed elements in light of the specification.

After a further search and a thorough examination of the present application and in light of the prior arts made of record, claims 5, 7, 14, 22 and 26 are hereby allowed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
